ACKNOWLEDGMENTS, RELEASES, AND WAIVERS: As a participant in S3DA events, all shooters, and spectators (hereinafter referred to as Releasor) acknowledge they are VOLUNTARILY participating or attending. Releasor should be aware that an archery tournament creates the risk of serious personal injury or death. Releasor should also be aware that the sport of Archery is generally the second safest sport, following only ping-pong. By participating, they realize that they may experience loss or damage to personal property. Releasors assume all risk of injury, death, and loss of personal property that may result from their participation in these archery tournaments. By registering to participate and thereby agreeing to abide by the rules herein, Releasor releases and discharges S3DA, tournament sponsors, host organizations, property owners, and the tournament staff and volunteers (herein collectively referred to as "Releasees") from liabilities or injuries, damages, or other loss sustained by the shooter as a result of negligence or strict liability of the released parties.
